

SIGNS OF ABUSE, NEGLECT, AND EXPLOITATION

The law protects the health and safety of “vulnerable adults” and children from abuse, neglect, and exploitation. It is important for participants and employees to know signs and symptoms of abuse, neglect and exploitation for health and safety reasons.

A vulnerable adult is someone over the age of 65 with a long-term disability. If you have concerns that a “vulnerable adult” or child is being harmed, please report it right away.

What is Abuse, Neglect, & Exploitation?

ABUSE is the willful infliction of injury, unreasonable confinement, intimidation, or punishment which results in physical harm, pain or mental anguish. It also includes the deprivation of food, water, shelter, etc. (Includes emotional, physical and sexual abuse).

NEGLECT is the refusal or failure to fulfill any part of a person’s obligations to another person, such as the provision of food, clothing, medicine, comfort, or personal safety.

FINANCIAL OR MATERIAL ABUSE or exploitation is the illegal or improper use of a person’s funds, property, or assets.

SELF-NEGLECT is an adult’s inability, due to physical or mental impairment or diminished capacity, to perform essential self-care tasks including providing for one’s own food, clothing, shelter, and medical care. Choice of lifestyle or living arrangement is not, in itself, evidence of self-neglect.

WHAT IS ABANDONMENT?

“Abandonment” is when a person or agency with a duty to care for a vulnerable adult or child acts (or fails to act) in a way that leaves the vulnerable adult unable to get needed food, clothing, shelter, or health care.

INDICATORS OF ABUSE, NEGLECT, OR EXPLOITATION
